

Using Modern Technologies for Majors and Minors

Class Outline

- Fundamental mis understanding of subluxation
- The lie of vertebral subluxation
- The power of innate
- Growth and protection
- Utilizing technology for a deeper understanding of the current nervous system's function and adaptability levels

- RED protocol

- HRV application and information given
- Thermal application and information given
- SEMG application and information given

- Finding the major subluxation and selecting the pathway to adjust

- Determining timeframe
- Determining clinical frequency and longevity of care

- Major and minors in a current model
- Review of previous DeJarnette writings
- Understanding of current research and application in clinical practice.

- Adjust only what needs on the day
- 2-3 segments or a single pathway per visit.

- Q&A