

Forward 2023

Session Information Sheet

Speaker(s) Name and Email	Full name with credentials: William “Beau” Foshee, DC	Email: drwfoshee@gmail.com
Speaker License Number(s) and State	(List all license numbers in good standing) TX 13966, MO 2022040813
Session title	Doctoring Among Doctors
Session Summary	This one hour education session and conversation will explore developing referral relationships to improve patient outcomes, the utilization of health care data to inform development and implementation strategies, and clarifying the modern chiropractic value proposition in interdisciplinary care.
Learning Objectives that describe what learners should be able to do upon completion:	Identify gaps in provider knowledge of interdisciplinary care Promote improved in-offices processes for external communications Demonstrate expectations in medical integrations Describe contemporary chiropractic value propositions Empower learners to better serve patients with collaborating health care providers
Course Outline	Chiropractic and Medical Integration (15 minutes) Data are Playwrights (15 minutes) Communication and Value Propositions (15 minutes) Q&A (5-15 minutes)
Content references published within the last 10 years:	All references provided on supplement.
Learner needs (why do attendees need this education? What is the take-home value?)	To better prepare chiropractors in closing knowledge gaps with medical providers To increase capacity for collaborative care To improve health outcomes for patients with musculoskeletal pain or dysfunction
Speaker(s) Bio (in 150 words or less)	Dr. William “Beau” Foshee (he/they) serves as chair of the ACA Committee on Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion, ACA alternate delegate for East Texas, chair of the ACA Membership Committee, and as a member of the ACA Investment Committee, ACA Legislative Committee, and Nominating Committee. They are a graduate of Northwestern Health Sciences University as a Diversity Leadership Scholar. He was named a Philanthropy Fund Foundation Scholar in recognition of his leadership and service to the LGBTQIA community. Dr Foshee works to improve culturally competent

	delivery of chiropractic care and has been privileged to present courses and conversations on health equity to chiropractic stakeholders in national and state organizations, university audiences, and regulatory agencies. Dr. Foshee is Director of Clinical Development for MyoCore Personalized Pain Care, a multi-clinic, hospital-based chiropractic system with offices in more than 20 locations.
--	---