

Outline

---

Hour

1. General information regarding what boundary issues entail in chiropractic practice.
2. Discussion of professional practice skills in dealing with personal professional boundary related issues.
3. Perform analysis of case based reenacted scenarios related to professional boundaries

Objectives

---

In this course the learner will:

- Understand what professional boundary issues entail in chiropractic practice.
- Explore and recognize the duties required of a professional related to the knowledge of others unethical conduct.
- Perform analysis of several cases involving reenacted scenarios related to professional boundaries and develop an action plan to deal with these boundary related issues.