Pre-Chiropractic, College of the Desert	1983-84
Pre-Chiropractic, West Coast University	1985-86
Doctor of Chiropractic, Cleveland Chiropractic College of Los Angeles	1989

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Internship Cleveland Chiropractic College of Los Angeles	1988-89
Private Practice, Fort Wayne, Indiana	1989-98
Resident of Dr. James Cox	1989-91
Associate Physician with Dr. James Cox	1991-95
Partner with Dr. James Cox and
Co-Director Cox® Chiropractic Associates, Inc.	1995-98

Upon completion of his two year residency, Dr. Hazen was invited to stay as associate and then partner until his return to his home state of California in 1998. Cox® Technic with its related protocol is the way Dr. Hazen started practice and continues to practice today.
