

Dr. Andy Barlow, DC, DACNB, FACFN

- Served in U. S. Navy 1982-1986 with honorable discharge
- Has been in private practice in Tupelo, MS since 2001
- Received Doctorate in Chiropractic at Life University, Marietta, Ga.
- Fellow of the American College of Function Neurology
- Board Certified Chiropractic Neurologist
- National and International Instructor for the American Functional Neurology Institute
- National and International Lecturer as well as Lead U. S. instructor for the Trigenics® Institute
Trigenics® is a neurological treatment system which reconnects the way the brain communicates with the body to instantaneously decrease pain and increase mobility.
- Lecturer for Ergo-Flex Technology
- Was awarded “2017 Daily Journal Readers’ Choice Award Finalist”
- Author of “License to Heal, What to Do When Traditional Medicine Has Failed”. Which was at the time of its release the #1 New Release on Amazon, #1 in Pain Management, as well as #1 in Healthy Living
- Co-Author of “Your 21st Century Doctor”
- Key note speaker at the “Reinvention Convention” 2014 and 2015
- Clinic Director of Regenerative Medicine of Mississippi