2 CE Hours

Course Instructor: Dr. Scot McCormick

Class 1: Workshop Excellence – Adaptations

Patient Communication

Course Objective:

Delivering a workshop style class that engages the participants to look at themselves as adaptors in their physical bodies and in their environment. The desired result from this class is to be able to communicate more effectively the process of adaptation in patient care.

Statement of Purpose: Adaptation is life. Recognizing the efficiency of adaptation is paramount in this class and effectiveness.

0-15 minutes- Prevalence of the problem – adaptation. What is common and not normal explained and how the problem is relevant and relatable to the public.

16-30 minutes- Bulleted solution steps to address the problem of the workshop topic delivered.

31-50 minutes- Sharing a compelling patient care experience with the reason for people to make different choices to impact their health and the health of those around them.

Class 2: Best Practices of Chiropractic Care

Evidence-Based Outcomes

Course Objective:

Exploring the current utilization of chiropractic care and objectives for clinical care delivered.

Statement of Purpose: Knowing what the standards of care are administered as best practice procedures through the lifetime of care delivered.

0-15 minutes- Exploring studies of patient outcomes in utilization of chiropractic care. Targeting our specific, measurable objectives in delivering chiropractic care.

16-30 minutes -Standards of chiropractic care for varying populations and conditions with realistic expectations of the care delivered.

31-50 minutes- Parameters to adhere to in our best practices and how to apply exceptions to the standards as a result of comorbidities and complicating factors.
