

20 CE Hours Seminar Outline

- Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ) biomechanics, anatomy, dysfunction, and pain
- Examination/Evaluation and differential diagnosis of TMJ disorders
- Literature review of clinical trials for the treatment of TMJ conditions
- Rotator cuff biomechanics, anatomy, dysfunction, and pain
- Examination/Evaluation and differential diagnosis of rotator cuff disorders
- Literature review of clinical trials for the treatment of rotator cuff conditions
- Radiographic interpretation of diagnostic imaging case studies
- Differential diagnosis and recognizing conditions not within our scope of practice
- Recognizing signs and symptoms of stroke and vertebral artery dissection
- The impact of nutrition, diet, and obesity on the spine and joints